FAMILY LAW.

Mundays has one of the largest and most established Family Law teams in the South East of England. We understand that separating or divorcing from your partner can be a very difficult time. You may feel vulnerable, worried about money or concerned about how to resolve a dispute about your children.

You need expert and cost-effective advice from lawyers who have the personal skills to support you, the litigation skills to fight your corner and the technical skills to ensure that you achieve the best possible solution.

Stellar team handling complex and high-end financial and children-related matters, with a particular focus on cross-border cases. Provides clients with options for dispute resolution through mediation, arbitration or collaborative means.

“

I thought the lawyers were brilliant and I have recommended them to friends. They focus on providing the best service to the client and taking the time to understand the situation, and they have the right legal expertise to make things happen.
